The International Association of Lions Clubs was founded in Chicago by businessman Melvin Jones. He believed that local businesses should expand their horizons from purely professional concerns to the betterment of their communities and the world at large.

An organizational meeting was held in 1917 and the first national convention was held in Dallas in October of 1917.

Now there are over 1.3 million members and 45,000 clubs in 205 countries and geographical areas.

Helen Keller Gives Lions "Vision"

In 1925 Helen Keller, who was blind and deaf, addressed the Lions International Convention and challenged all Lions to become,

"Knights of the Blind against darkness."
